How to involve your Fablab in tendering procedures for SDG projects; Experience the world of SDG projects in our management game. Make proposals for SDG projects. Learn how the assessment works out.

We give you a brief introduction to the financing of SDG-related development projects. Then we start a management game. In groups you play successively different roles. As a government, you translate an SDG target into a Request for Proposals (RfP). As a Fablab you develop a proposal for an SDG project. As a development bank you are going to assess such a proposal. And as a Fab lab, again you take note of this and draw lessons from it. Finally, we present all proposals in plenary. We record and share all results.

I'm super sad that I couldn't make it, but I'm interested in talking with you about this! We've been indexing over a thousand hardware solutions into the SDGs, so you'd be interested in checking this out! :)
